COVER LETTER

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

DEAR SIR/MADAM

I am currently a student of BSc Computer Science pursuing to my final year soon. To practice what I have learned and gain a practical understanding about my knowledge, I am looking for an internship in a esteemed and recognised organisation.

As a good team player, with excellent problem solving and interpersonal skills, I consider myself a productive worker and will ensure all tasks given to me are completed on time and to the highest standards.

I would highly appreciate your consideration of my application. My attached resume will provide you with more detail about my academics.

Looking forward.

YOUR SINCERELY SHEHARYAR
AHMAD
